DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 2/25/09 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-28 and 38-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

4. Claims 1 and 44 recite the limitation "a block and tackle disposed in the closure device and anchored to the proximal end". This limitation suggests that the entire block and tackle is anchored to the proximal end. However, the "block and tackle" is disclosed to comprise of plate 165, cap 105, and the second filament, wherein the cap is the only portion that is anchored to the proximal end (paragraph [0027] of the application's printed publication). Therefore, the limitation stating that the block and tackle is anchored to the proximal end is not enabled because at least the plate 165 is not anchored to the proximal end.

5. Claims 1, 11, 24, 38 and 44 recite the limitation of "wherein the block and tackle is spaced proximally of the anchor, the sealing plug, and the first filament (biologically resorbable filament". This limitation suggests that the entire block and tackle is spaced proximally from the first filament. However, the "block and tackle" is disclosed to comprise of plate 165, cap 105, and the second filament, wherein the plate is connected to the first filament at the same location (paragraph [0027] of the application's printed publication). Therefore, the limitation stating that the block and tackle is spaced proximally from the first filament is not enabled because at least the plate 165 is not located proximally of the first filament (they are connected together).

6. Claim 38 recite the limitation "a block and tackle coupled to the anchor and the sealing plug". This limitation suggests that the entire block and tackle is coupled to the anchor and the sealing plug. However, the "block and tackle" is disclosed to comprise of plate 165, cap 105, and the second filament, wherein the plate is the only portion that is coupled to the anchor and the sealing plug (paragraph [0027] of the application's printed publication). Therefore, the limitation stating that the block and tackle is coupled to the anchor and the sealing plug is not enabled because at least the cap 105 is not coupled to the anchor and the sealing plug.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-28 and 38-44 are have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
